

🍷 TGIF, romance lovers!

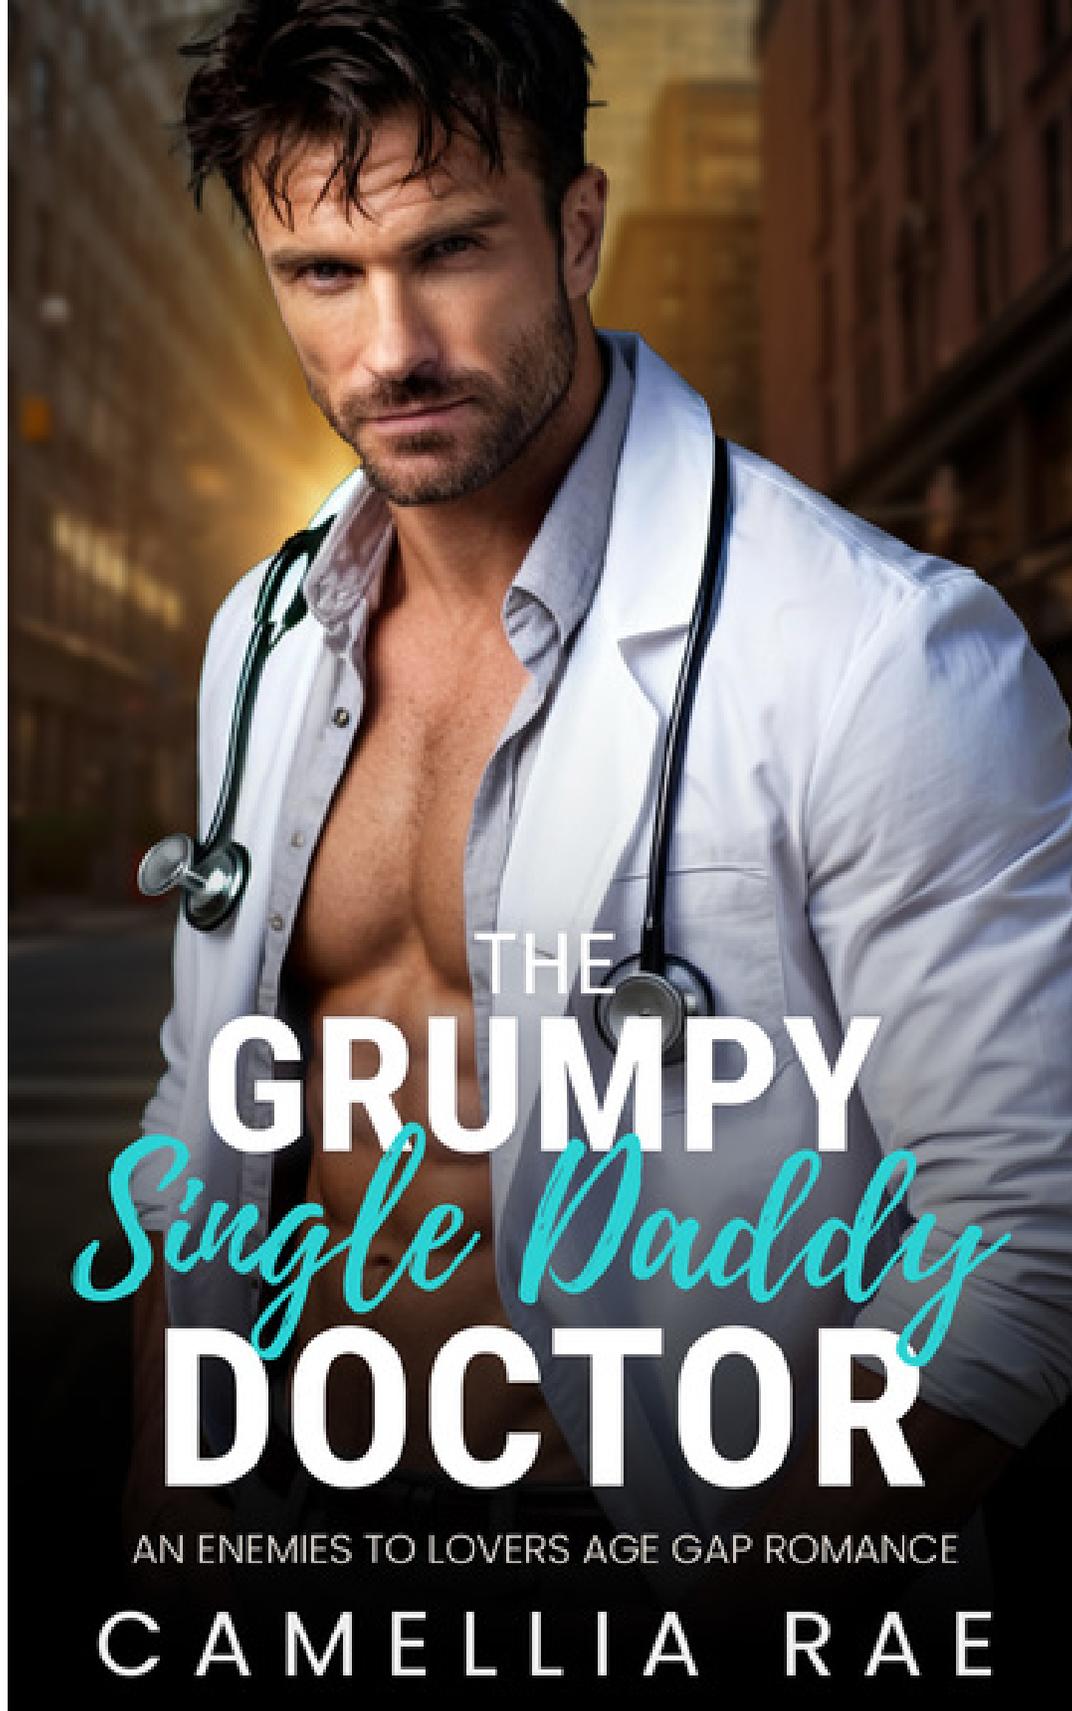

The weekend is incoming... and you know what that means. 😊

The week is done, clothes are optional, and it's finally time to indulge in something guaranteed to keep you deliciously distracted.

And yes—this one's free.

If you love small-town vibes and a romance that simmers before it sizzles, you're going to want to settle in for this one. 🔥💕

Happy reading! 💕

I never planned to fall for the grumpy doctor next door.

When I accidentally lock myself out of my bakery—in my pajamas, with muffins burning—Dr. Gavin Brooks saves the day. And half of Maplewood watches it happen.

Now the whole town thinks we're a thing.

He's everything I'm not. Cold where I'm warm. Guarded where I'm open. A single dad running from a scandal that could cost him everything.

I should stay away. One wrong step and I'll make his problems worse.

But his daughter Maddie has already stolen my heart. And beneath all that armor, Gavin's just a man terrified of losing the only thing that matters.

When his past threatens to tear them apart, I do what any sunshine baker would do.

I rally this small town to fight for him.

Because some things are worth the risk. Some families are worth the fire.

And some grumpy doctors just need someone to show them what love looks like.
