Contemporary Romance

Hello, romance lovers, 🥰

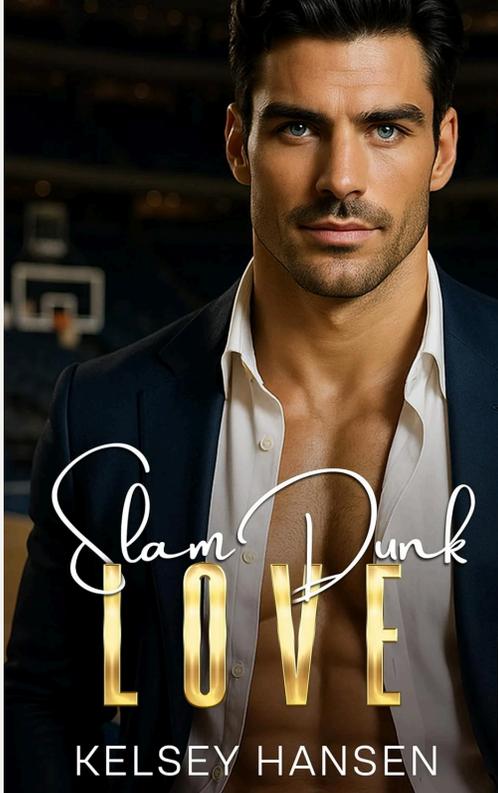

Brrr... is it just me, or is winter already showing off?

The temps are dropping, my heater is working overtime, and I'm firmly in "thaw me out, please" mode.

Weather like this calls for a romance that melts a frosty exterior, turns tension into heat, and features a man who looks like he's carved from ice... but whose kisses burn like fire. ❄️ 🔥

If that sounds like your vibe too, this week's feature is exactly what you need.

Happy reading! 💕

Author: Kelsey Hansen

Slam Dunk Love

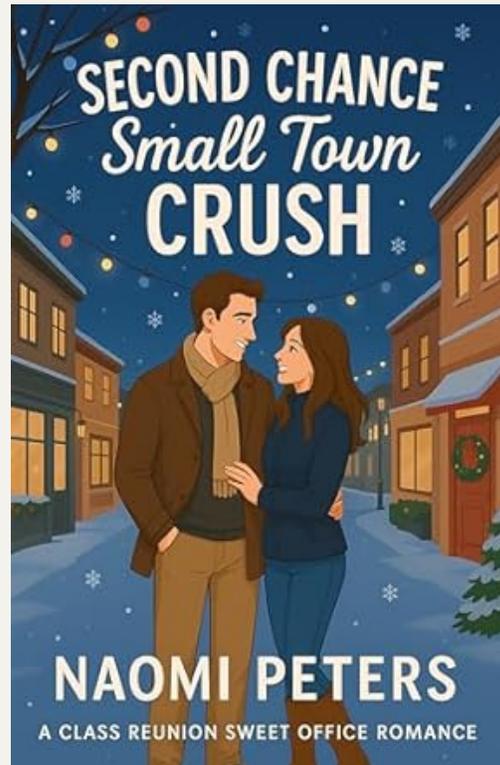

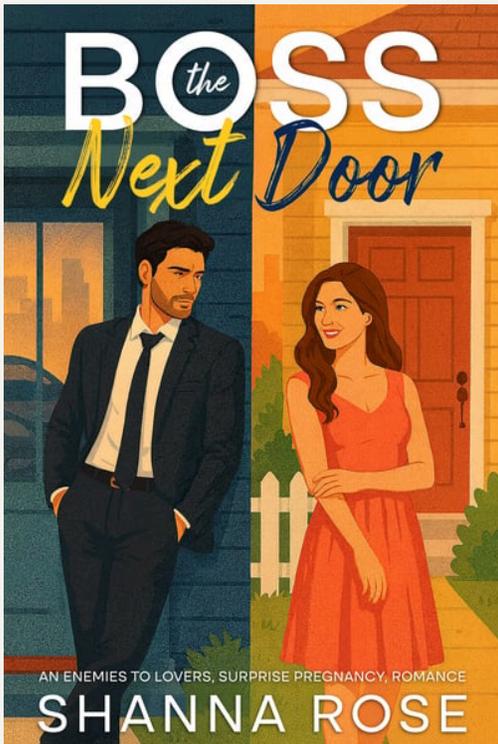

He has an ice-cold stare... but the way he watches me?

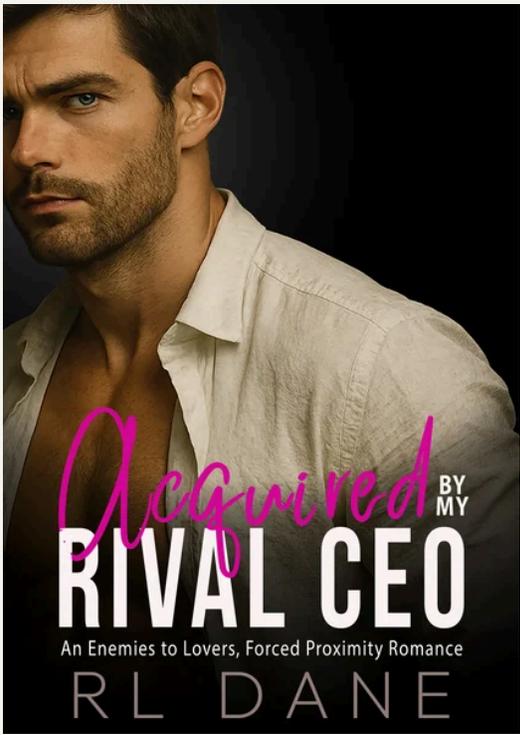

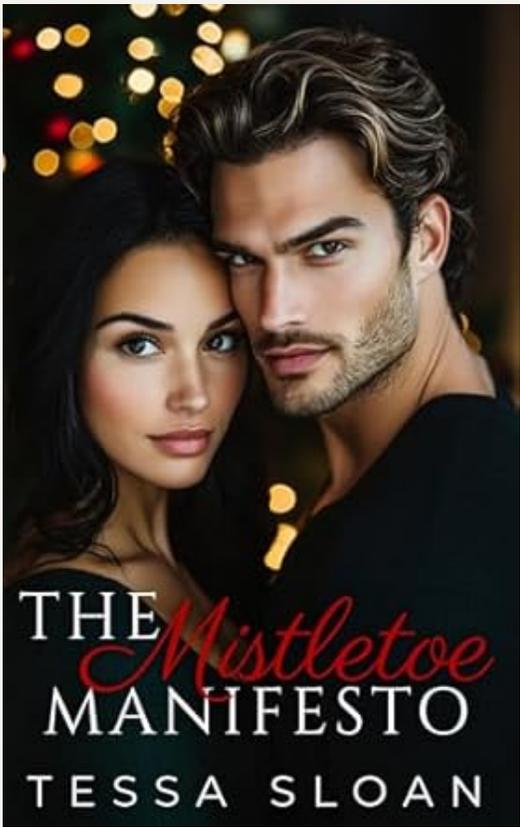

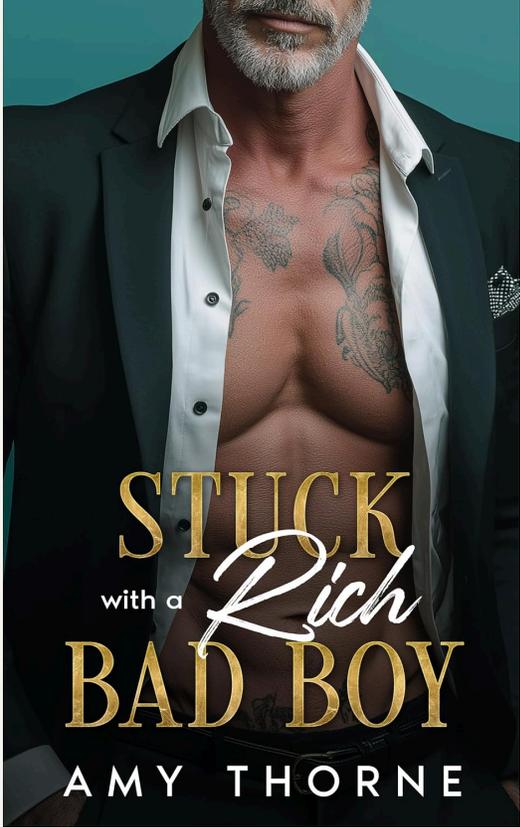

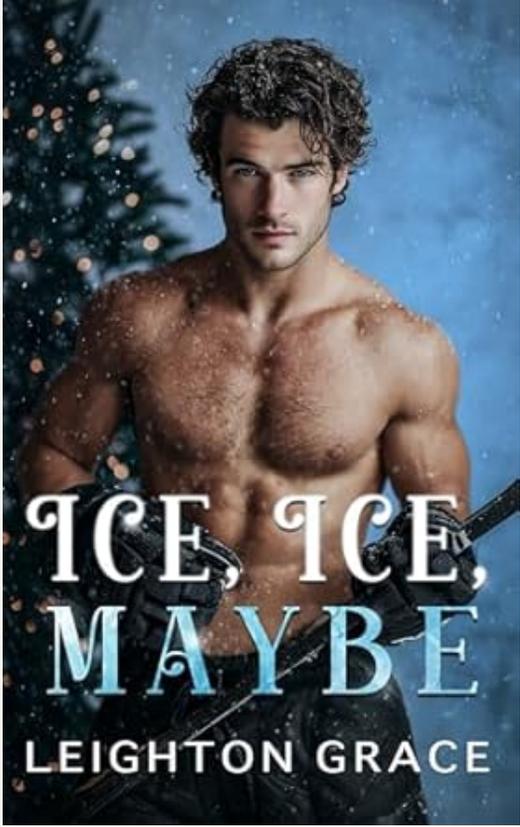

It's hungry. Knowing. Like he can see every thought I'm trying not to have.

I told myself nothing could happen between us. And then it did—spectacularly.

Now there's no going back... not when one moment changed everything, and the man I thought was untouchable is now the one I'm terrified to want this much. 🔥 Warm up to their romance.
